EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS TIP OF THE MONTH- Make a Kit

You should have some basic supplies on hand in order to survive for at least three days—3 kits, one for home, one for the car, and one for the office.

A good emergency kit should will you the tools you need to take care of yourself for at least 72 hours.

BASICS- recommended items to include in a basic emergency supply kit:

- Battery-powered or hand crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both.
- Flashlight and extra batteries.
- First aid kit
- Whistle to signal for help
- Dust mask, to help filter contaminated air, plastic sheeting and duct tape to shelter-in-place.
- Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation
- Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities.
- Can opener for food (if kit contains canned food)
- Local maps

WATER

- One gallon of water per person per day, for drinking and sanitation.
- Children, nursing mothers, and sick people may need more water.
- If you live in a warm weather climate, more water may be necessary.
- Store water tightly in clean, plastic containers such as soft drink bottles.
- Keep at least a three-day supply of water per person.

FOOD

- Store at least a three-day supply of non-perishable food.
- Select foods that require no refrigeration, preparation or cooking and little or no water.
- Pack a manual can opener and eating utensils.
- Avoid salty foods, as they will make you thirsty.
- Choose foods your family will eat such as: ready-to-eat canned meats, fruits and vegetables, protein or fruit bars, dry cereal or granola, peanut butter, dried fruit, nuts, crackers, canned juices, non-perishable milk, high energy foods, vitamins, food for infants, comfort/stress foods.

EXTRAS: Consider these additional items to add to your kit:

- Prescription medications
- Extra eye glasses
- Infant formula and diapers
- Pet food and extra water

- Important family documents in a waterproof, portable container: insurance policies, ID and bank account records
- Cash or traveler's checks
- Reference material such as a first aid book or information from www.ready.gov
- Sleeping bag or warm blanket for each person
- Complete change of clothing including a long sleeved shirt, long pants and sturdy shoes.
- Fire extinguisher
- Matches in a waterproof container
- Feminine supplies and personal hygiene items
- Mess kits, paper cups, plates and plastic utensils, paper towels
- Paper and pencil
- Books, games, puzzles or other activities for children
- Household chlorine bleach and medicine dropper. When diluted nine parts water to one part bleach, bleach can be used as a disinfectant. Or in an emergency, you can use it to treat water by using 16 drops of regular household liquid bleach per gallon of water. Do not use scented, color safe or bleaches with added cleaners.

LEHI PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Lehi Library staff, along with the Lehi Library Board, are dedicated to ensuring that your experience at the library is an enriching one. The Lehi Library has an Internet Use Policy that is enforced so that visitors to the library of all ages are not inadvertently exposed to unacceptable content. Lehi City takes this responsibility seriously and is doing all it can to ensure the library is a pleasant place to visit.

There are currently openings on the Library Board. If you are interested in helping the library, please contact a Lehi Library staff member. This is a great opportunity to support our community and continue the tradition of excellence in the library.

Creating a Likeness

September 19, and 26, 9 a.m.-noon

This adult class, taught by artist Casey Childs, is for the serious learner of any skill level who desires increased portrait drawing accuracy. Using a live model, participants will learn to simplify complex shapes and forms, see the portrait as a whole before seeing its parts, and practice many other important drawing concepts.

Casey received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Brigham Young University and is currently apprenticing with renowned portrait painter William Whitaker. His work has been displayed throughout the region and is included in both public and private collections. Samples of Casey's art can be seen at his website, www.caseychilds.com.

This two-day class will be held at the Lehi Arts Center (685 N. Center Street, Lehi) and costs $45, which includes registration and all materials. Registration is available at www.lehicityarts.org from August 15, through September 12. For registration questions, please contact Jean Hatch at 801-766-0912 or 801-369-8806. Participants must register in advance; no walk-ins will be accepted.

Defining Lehi: Past and Present

The Lehi Arts Council announces a call for entries for its 3rd Annual Photo Contest! The contest, to be held in January 2010, is seeking remarkable, original photographs taken within the boundaries of Lehi that deal with the theme "Defining Lehi: Past and Present." Amateur photographers of all ages may participate, and all photos will be included in the show. Entry forms will be available in early October at www.lehicityarts.org. Please contact Linnie Brown at 801-766-2234 or LB@LinnieBrown.com for more information.
